Summer Camp Goals:

Students will study the basic principles and genres of Acting, and the skills necessary to create believable characters. Physical warm-ups, characterization games, improvisation and other techniques will be taught and utilized to enrich each student's performance. In conjunction with these exercises, students will create Arts and Crafts projects to be displayed on their performance night. All children will participate in an exhibition of their talents, which will display each of the child's interests. Children will be separated into different aspects of theater such as dance, acting, singing, stage managing, and many others. The children will get to choose which aspect of theater they would like to participate in for the talent show.

REGISTRATION:

Registration for "Broadway on Landis" Summer Camp is based on a first-come, first-served basis. Since space is limited registration is recommended. If applications are incomplete, missing information, or payment is not included, your child may not be enrolled. You will receive a confirmation letter by mail. Payment for camp is non-refundable.

CONDUCT WHILE ATTENDING CAMP:

Broadway on Landis will maintain an atmosphere of mutual caring, respect, and understanding.

Participation and good behavior is expected and includes the following rules:

1. Always listen to your leaders and follow camp rules
2. Cooperate with one another
3. Respect other's personal space and property
4. Stay with your group
5. Tell a teacher/counselor if something/someone is bothering or upsetting you
6. Honesty is expected at all times

DROP OFF/PICK UP POLICY:

Children may NOT arrive unattended. A parent/guardian will be expected to sign their child in for each session. No child who arrives unattended, will be allowed to attend camp until the child's parent/guardian is contacted. This policy is necessary for The Landis Theater Performing Arts Center to know which child is in attendance.

Children will be dismissed to their parent or authorized person at the end of the camp day. A parent or authorized person will be expected to sign out their child. Your child will only be dismissed to the people you have listed on the Summer Camp application.

Summer camp closes at 4. Any child picked up 10 minutes after dismissal will be charged a $15.00 late fee for every fifteen minutes the child is not picked up. Two late pickups may result in dismissal from camp. If the parent/guardian fails to pick up their child within 15 minutes dismissal, The Landis Theater Performing Arts Center will ensure that:

1. Every child will be supervised at all times
2. If an emergency arises, staff will attempt to contact parent/guardian/emergency contacts to discuss pick up options
3. If a child is not picked up by 60 minutes passed dismissal, the staff will contact the NJ Division of Youth & Family Services to seek assistance in caring for the child until an authorized person is able to pick up the child.

If a parent or authorized person appears to be physically and/or emotionally impaired to the extent that, in the judgment of any Staff member, the child will be placed at risk of harm if released to such an individual, The Landis Theater Performing Arts Center will ensure that:

1. The child may not be released to such an impaired person
2. Staff members will attempt to contact an alternate, authorized person for pick up

3. The NJ Division of Youth & Family Services will be contacted to seek assistance in caring for the child until an authorized person is able to pick up the child only if The Landis Theater Performing Arts Center is not able to make alternate arrangements, the staff will contact
